

TOP SECRET

Director's Meeting

Wednesday, 25 July 1951

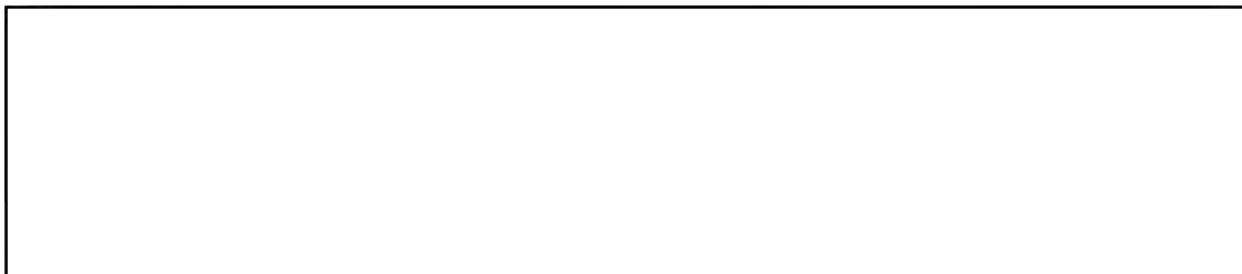

Mr. Jackson reported that he had spoken to [] about the possibility of his being a consultant. [] does not feel he can do this on a formal paid basis. We may, therefore, consult him informally from time to time.

25X1
25X1

The DCI stated that Mr. Stassen would be here Friday afternoon.

Mr. [] suggested letters should be written for the DCI's signature to [] who is returning from the Philippines, and to General [] who is taking his place. The DCI agreed to write General [] Mr. [] will prepare a letter.

25X1

25X1

The DCI stated that among other things Ambassador Pauli has been favorably impressed with CIA personnel overseas. Mr. [] would like to play along with Ambassador Pauli at arms length and be on the receiving end of ideas.

25X1

The DCI stated that General [] will be here on Friday. Mr. [] is to have the appropriate Far East people standing by.

25X1
25X1

The DCI thinks that [] still has possibilities and hates to wash him out. However, he must be taught guerrilla warfare. Mr. [] stated that State Department is still restive about this operation and that Mr. Rusk would like our effort to be concentrated from areas that are not so sensitive. [] reassured Rusk on this point. The DCI

25X1

(Continued)

TOP SECRET

TOP SECRET

- 2 -

Wednesday, 25 July 1951

25X1

thinks we should not help further untill [redacted]

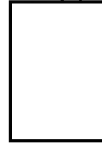

25X1

[redacted] First of all, we should get our people out and confer with [redacted] Mr. [redacted] will follow this and confer further with State Department.

25X1

Mr. [redacted] stated that the matter of assistance to the Third Force is all up in the air. State Department is of a divided mind. The DCI believes that the Third Force must be kept alive but that this is a political decision for State Department. Mr. [redacted] will follow this.

25X1

25X1

TOP SECRET